

ACI Africa Secretariat reinforces its Team with Communications and Safety Experts

Elijah Miano

ACI Africa,
Manager Communications

Naoufel Khiari

ACI Africa,
Manager Safety and Technical

We are excited to announce two new additions to our team. Naoufel Khiari and Elijah Miano have recently joined ACI Africa where they will add value to our vision and contribute to our overall mission as an organization serving our members and the air transport industry on the African continent.

Naoufel is our new Manager Safety and Technical. He has over 23 years of extensive experience in airport operations, safety, aerodrome design and construction. Naoufel will bring his expertise in safety and technical matters to the airport industry as well as oversee the training program of ACI Africa.

Elijah is joining the team as Manager Communications and brings with him over 13 years of valuable experience in corporate communications and digital public relations. He will boost the digital communications department of ACI Africa with his forward looking and innovative vision and approach.

We look forward to better serving you with your specific needs with our reinforced team of fully dedicated and motivated staff.
