

Airside Physical Characteristics and Visual Aids

Duration:

Online - This course spanning over 5 days consists of 15 hours online interaction with a highly qualified instructor and 15 hours offline for individual and group course works.

In-class/onsite – duration of 5 days comprising in-class and on-site training

Course Aim:

The course summarises the components of ICAO Annex 14 in simple terms and expands on the participant's ability to implement the various components of ICAO Annex 14 in their daily operational activities.

Course Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Gain an in-depth understanding of the contents of ICAO Annex 14
- Understand how other publications support the implementation of Annex 14 SARPs
- Understand how to review aerodrome facilities for compliance to Annex 14
- Understand the inspection and maintenance guidelines provided by Annex 14
- Work with certification teams in identifying and closing operational gaps

Target Audience:

- Airside Compliance Officers
- Airside Inspectors
- Airside Managers Maintenance and Inspection
- Airside Managers Operations
- Airside Maintenance and safety Personnel
- Engineering Department Personnel

Course Contents:

- ICAO Annex 14 and other Publications
- Different components of ICAO Annex 14
- Aerodrome Pavements
- Surface Movement Guidance and Control Systems
- Maintenance of Operational Systems
- Auditing Aerodrome facilities