

Managing Operations During Construction

Overview

The ACI Managing Operations During Construction course provides guidance to airport operators and other stakeholders on how to plan for and manage operations during airport construction projects.

It is designed to help you produce better and more appropriate plans for the management of, and safe operation during, construction.

This course describes lessons learned and best practices identified by airports who have experience in managing airport operations while construction projects are underway.

It also explores a case study to further enhance your understanding of how to successfully manage operations during construction.

Objectives

On completion of this course participants will be able to:

- Describe the stakeholders involved in airport construction projects
- Understand the regulatory framework impacting the management of operations during construction
- Identify the different types of construction works that take place at an airport
- Understand the key activities that should be attended to prior to, during and after construction
- Understand the critical measures that should be taken to maintain safe operations during construction

Who should enrol?

- Airport managers, supervisors or personnel who manage aerodrome works
- Airport managers, supervisors or personnel with safety responsibilities
- Airport professionals engaged in operations and development
- Anyone interested in a career in airport operations and/or safety

Course Content

The Managing Operations During Construction course contains the following sections:

1. Welcome
2. Overview
3. Introduction to Managing Operations During Construction

AIRPORTS COUNCIL INTERNATIONAL AFRICA

---

4. Pre-Construction
5. During Construction
6. Handover and Commissioning
7. Construction Area Safety Measures
8. Lessons Learned
9. Case Study

This training course includes an integrated online assessment. Candidates must successfully complete the assessment to receive a Certificate of Completion.